For Reflection

“Learning lessons is a little like reaching maturity. You’re not suddenly more happy, healthy, wealthy, or powerful, but you understand the world around you better, and you’re at peace with yourself.

Learning life’s lessons is not about making your life perfect, but seeing life as it was meant to be.”

Elizabeth Kubler-Ross

“Peace is not the absence of conflict – it is the ability to handle conflicts in peaceful means.”

Ronald Reagan

Questions

“What negative thought am I thinking about, situations, myself, or others, that I can turn into a positive thought?”

“How can I find a way to promote peace today?”
