Have you ever passed someone standing at an intersection, holding a sign asking for money or help, and averted your eyes because you weren't sure what to do? I know I have! The issues surrounding poverty can feel overwhelming.

This weekend we continue our series on Love Your Neighbor with the second part of What About the Poor? Starting with Matthew 25:31-45 (The Message), we'll think about how we love – not as a feeling, but as an action – those whom God calls us to love.

I recently came across this poem, which has really stuck with me and challenged me.

*I was hungry ...
And you formed humanities groups to discuss my hunger.
I was imprisoned ...
And you crept off quietly to your church and prayed for my release.
I was naked ...
And in your mind you debated the morality of my appearance.
I was sick ...
And you knelt and thanked God for your health.
I was homeless ...
And you preached to me of the spiritual shelter of the love of God.
I was lonely ...
And you left me alone to pray for me.
You seem so holy, so close to God ...
But I am still hungry ... and lonely ... and cold ...

Our service will conclude with Holy Communion, so you'll want to have some bread (or crackers) and juice (or water) available.

Looking forward to worshipping together!
